

CODE OF CONDUCT

At PARC, we are committed to creating a fun, respectful, and inclusive environment where all participants can learn, compete, and collaborate. By participating in PARC, all team members, coaches, and guests agree to abide by the following Code of Conduct:

Respect and Integrity

- Treat all participants, volunteers, judges, staff, and guests with courtesy and respect at all times.
- Display honesty and integrity in all aspects of competition, teamwork, and interactions.
- Respect differences in backgrounds, cultures, languages, and perspectives.

Safety and Responsibility

- Follow all safety guidelines related to equipment, materials, and venue protocols.
- Report any unsafe conditions or behavior immediately to event staff.
- Take care of competition equipment, facilities, and provided resources. Leave spaces clean and organized.

Fair Play and Ethics

- Compete fairly and do your best without engaging in cheating, plagiarism, or sabotage.
- Support and celebrate the efforts of other teams—good sportsmanship is expected at all times.
- Respect all final decisions made by referees and judges.

Professional Behavior

- Use appropriate language and behavior in all settings (competition, dormitories, online groups, etc.).
- Dress appropriately for a professional and educational environment.
- Refrain from disruptive behavior that negatively impacts other participants' experience.

Consequences for Misconduct

- Failure to comply with the Code of Conduct may result in warnings, removal from specific activities, disqualification from the competition, or dismissal from the event, depending on the severity of the violation.

Commitment

- By attending PARC, you agree to uphold these principles and contribute to a positive, respectful, and inspiring experience for everyone.

